Policy Area: Crown College International – International Students Only

Authorised by: Internationalisation Advisory Committee

CRICOS Provider No 03582D

Organisation Definition:

Crown Melbourne Limited trades as Crown Melbourne Limited, Crown College and Crown College International. For the purpose of this policy, any reference to Crown College, or the “college” should be considered a reference to any of these respective trading names.

1. Policy

1.1 This policy has been developed by Crown College International to outline the process for selection and performance management of its International Education Agents in order to satisfy the requirements of the ESOS Act and National Code 2018 which states that: “Registered providers take all reasonable measures to use education agents that have an appropriate knowledge and understanding of the Australian international education industry and do not use education agents who are dishonest or lack integrity”.

1.2 Crown College International takes all reasonable measures to ensure that the International Education Agents it engages are ethical, professional and have a good working knowledge of:

- i. The National Code 2018;
- ii. The ESOS Act;
- iii. The Education Agents Code of Ethics;
- iv. Crown College International’s values.

1.3 Crown College International will not recruit or maintain a relationship with any International Education Agent who is unethical, dishonest, or does not adhere to the principles of the agreement.

2. Scope

2.1 This policy applies to all International Education Agents, or their employees engaged by Crown College International, on any basis and at all times.

3. Responsibility

3.1 The Sales and Marketing Officers will manage and monitor all International Education Agents continuously and consistently against this policy, procedures and Agent Agreements.

4. Procedures

4.1 Crown College International engages International Education Agents as its representatives for the specific purpose of providing recruitment services of suitable and committed prospective international students for enrolment into full time study programs at Crown College International.

4.2 All International Education Agents engaged by Crown College International must ensure high standards of ethics are demonstrated to prospective students throughout all pre-enrolment and follow up services (if applicable) in accordance with the International Education Agent Agreement, all relevant policies, procedures and guidelines and the requirements of the ESOS Act and the National Code 2018.

4.3 Crown College International will only appoint agents with suitable company structures in their relevant country or in Australia where relevant. All prospective agents will be required to complete an International Education Agent Application Form for consideration to become an official agent for Crown College International and all referee checks will be completed before the consideration of the issue of an Agent Agreement.

4.4 The following procedures are to be adhered to by all Crown College International Education Agents:

4.4.1 Crown College International will specify the responsibilities of the International Education Agent and Crown College International and the need to abide by the ESOS Act and the National Code 2018.

4.4.2 Crown College International will ensure its International Education Agents have up-to-date and accurate marketing information provided by Crown College International.

4.4.3 Crown College International will monitor the performance of its International Education Agents and take action, including terminating the agreement, when the International Education Agent does not fulfil its responsibilities.

4.5 Selection criteria

4.5.1 Crown College International will select International Education Agents on the basis of their overall experience and understanding of the National Code and ESOS Act.

4.5.2 Whenever Crown College International is approached by an Agent to provide student recruitment services, the agent will be asked to complete and sign the International Agent Application Form. This form will request information that includes, but is not limited to:

- i. Business/company details
- ii. Name of primary contact person
- iii. All contacts details including website, telephone, fax and email
- iv. Primary countries of operation
- v. Membership of Professional Associations
- vi. References

4.5.3 On receiving an application the Sales and Marketing Officers will establish an Agents File and will verify all details are correct and undertake the reference checks.

4.5.4 International Education Agents making application to Crown College International must provide a minimum of three (3) Referees. In the event the International Education Agent cannot supply this, then Crown College International will make a professional judgement on the validity of the International Education Agent's application.

4.5.5 If all outcomes of the checks are positive the Agent will be offered a contract.

4.6 Agent Agreements

4.6.1 Crown College International will enter into a written agreement with each International Education Agent it engages.

4.6.2 The agreement will specify the roles and responsibilities of both parties and will regularly review the performance of the International Education Agent, including where corrective action may be required and conditions under which the agreement may be terminated.

4.6.3 Crown College International will monitor the performance of International Education Agents through the following means:

- i. regular review of the international Agent website for accuracy and currency of information relating to Crown College International.
- ii. regular provision and restocking of Crown College International marketing material.
- i. ongoing and consistent contact with International Education Agents via telephone and email.

4.6.4 The Sales and Marketing Officer will be responsible for organising training and support for Agents at a time suitable for both parties. This training and support will include, but not limited to:

- i. ensuring the Agent understands all areas of the International Education Agent Agreement;
- ii. promotional/marketing materials
- iii. overview of student Orientation program
- iv. Crown College International resources and facilities
- v. regular training of agency employee/s of regulatory requirement including ESOS Act and National Code 2018 requirements

4.6.5 The Sales and Marketing Officer will ensure that all Agents have up-to-date, appropriate and sufficient marketing materials necessary to conduct promotion and recruitment services that reflect the high standards of Crown College International, the ESOS Act and National Code 2018.

4.6.6 Crown College International will regularly review the agreements it has in place to ensure they are compliant. Crown College International will not accept students from an International Education Agent or enter into an agreement with an International Education Agent if it knows or reasonably suspects the International Education Agent to be:

- i. Engaged in, or to have previously been engaged in, dishonest practices, including the deliberate attempt to recruit a student where this clearly conflicts with the obligations regarding transfers between registered providers;
- i. Facilitating the enrolment of a student who the International Education Agent believes will not comply with the conditions of their student visa;
- ii. Using Provider Registration and International Students Management System (PRISMS) to create Confirmations of Enrolment for other than a bona fide student;
- iii. Providing immigration advice when not authorised under the Migration Act 1958 to do so.

4.7 Communication

4.7.1 Crown College International considers an ongoing and open communication with Agents as a critical part of the successful relationship between both parties. The Sales and Marketing Officer is responsible for such communication and will take every opportunity both in Australia and overseas, to ensure that there is regular and ongoing communication with all contracted Agents.

4.7.2 All communications with agents by the Sales and Marketing Officer will be logged and maintained on the Agent's File.

4.7.3 Communication channels with Agents will include but not limited to:

- i. Face-to-face contact (in person or electronically)
- ii. CRM database
- iii. Telephone
- iv. Email
- v. Facsimile
- vi. All other forms of electronic communication

4.8 Performance Review

4.8.1 Agent contracts will be reviewed annually from commencement dates by the Sales and Marketing Officer who will prepare a report on the performance of the agent and agency.

4.8.2 The report will be based on analysis of information in the Agent's File and international student survey results. The report will include, but not limited to:

- i. Number of students provided by the agent;
- ii. Number of students provided by the agent who have had to be reported to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP);
- iii. Analysis of student satisfaction of agent services;
- iv. Comment on responsiveness of agents to communications with the Sales and Marketing Officer;

4.8.3 On the basis of this report the Group General Manager, Learning & Development will make the decision to extend or terminate the Agent's Contract with Crown College International.

4.8.4 If the decision is made to extend the Agent's Contract a new agreement will be signed and the Sales and Marketing Officer will ensure that all agent details held on file are accurate and up-to-date.

4.9 Termination of International Agency Agreements

4.9.1 Where Crown College International has entered into an agreement with an International Education Agent and subsequently becomes aware of, or reasonably suspects, the engagement by that International Education Agent, or an employee or sub-contractor of that agent, of the conduct set out above, Crown College International will terminate the agreement with the International Education Agent.

4.9.2 If Crown College International knows or suspects an employee of the agent is engaged in the unethical activities, Crown College International will report the employee to the International Education Agent (agency). The Education Agent may investigate the complaint and possibly terminate the employee's contract. Crown College International may choose to terminate its agreement with the International Education Agent, depending on the terms of the agreement.

4.9.3 This would not normally apply where an individual employee or sub-contractor of the International Education Agent was responsible for the conduct set out above and the International Education Agent has terminated the relationship with that individual employee or sub-contractor.

4.10 Preventative and Corrective measures to be taken by Crown College International

4.10.1 As a matter of policy, Crown College International will take immediate corrective and/or preventative action upon becoming aware of an International Education Agent being negligent, careless or incompetent or being engaged in false, misleading or unethical advertising and recruitment practices, including practices that could harm the integrity of Australian education provision.

4.10.2 Preventative action could include training sessions for agents and ensuring they have all the material they need to represent Crown College International accurately and professionally.

4.10.3 Corrective action may include providing additional information/material or targeted training in, for example, the expectations of Crown College International.

4.10.4 Corrective action may also include termination of the agreement with the education agent.

4.11 International Marketing Materials

4.11.1 Crown College International marketing materials will be developed and reviewed to ensure it meets Crown College International's quality guidelines.

4.11.2 New and revised International marketing materials will be forwarded to all International Education Agents, to ensure that Crown College International's materials are up to date and do not mislead potential international students about Crown College International's courses and services.

4.12 Student Surveys

4.12.1 During student orientation, each student will be asked to complete a survey relating to the performance of their Agent.

4.12.2 The collected survey responses will be reviewed by the Sales and Marketing Officer.

4.12.3 Any responses or comments from students on the surveys that indicate failure to provide agreed information or level of service, or where the student has expressed dissatisfaction with the assistance of the Agent will be followed up with the student in the first instance and then with the Agent.

4.12.4 Such responses and follow up actions will be recorded in Salesforce and on the Agent's File.
